Mr. R. T. Adams is visiting in Gainesville.

Mr. W. Williams, a prominent turpentine operator, was in the city Monday.

The Catekill brick are all being piled in the vacant lot in the rear of the Montgomery hotel.

Mr. E. S. Upham, of South Lake Weir was among the pleasant visitors to Ocala Tuesday.

Mr. C. B. Tankersley, the Coleman capitalist, was in Ocala Monday on naval stores business.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. C. Chambliss have gone to Forest, Ga., to spend the holidays with relatives.

Mr. S. S. Duval, the well-known Sumnerfield mill man, was a business visitor to Ocala Monday.

Mr. Ernest Lyles, wife and baby are here from Tennessee, and may make their home with us permanently.

Mr. A. J. Harrell and little son of Oklawaha station, was in to see us Monday. Mr. Harrell is on the jury.

A great many people are saying that the municipal election fought matters in the city and "dry" election.

Mr. Alexander Murchison has come to Oklawaha station to spend several days with his wife and children.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hamilton, formerly of Oklawaha, have returned to Ocala.

Mr. Louis H. Hays, the well-known turpentine operator of Rock Springs, was transacting business in Ocala yesterday.

Miss Helen Smith, the Belleview school teacher, spent Saturday and Sunday in Ocala with her sister, Miss Fanny Smith.

AN OPPORTUNITY

To lease on favorable terms a 90-acre tract of fine land for trucking; an ideal place for Sea Island cotton, peaches, growing peach orchard or velvet beans; situation beautiful, on North Lake Weir. Or will sell this land, with twelve acres of as rich land as any in Florida, upon which there is one of the best orange groves, now in bearing. If interested, write or see me at Lake Weir, Fla., within thirty days after that time at Waco, Texas. R. E. Barnham. 11-22-07.

WEDDING OF MISS HOWELL AND MR. GUNBY

A wedding that is interesting alike throughout Georgia and Florida is that of Miss Eleanor Howell of Atlanta and Hon. Edward Roach Gunby. Their marriage was solemnized Saturday at the home of the bride's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Howell, Peachtree street, Atlanta, and was an affair characterized at once by elegance and exquisite taste. The house was decorated with palms, ferns and white flowers, a touch of color being given in the dining room by American beauty roses. Dr. D. K. Gunby acted as best man, while the bridesmaids were Misses Anita Phillips of Augusta, Constance Knowles, Nellie Nicholson, M. E. Phelan and Augusta Ogleby. Their costumes were of white chiffon and they carried bouquets of Easter lilies. The bride wore a Parisian toilette of white Glaz crepe, the corsage being richly embellished in a conventional style in silk and chenille. A finish was given by a bertha of Venetian lace. The veil was of point lace and the bouquet was composed of orchids. An informal reception and buffet supper followed the ceremony. It was attended by a congenial gathering of relatives and close friends. After a two weeks' wedding tour to northern points Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Gunby will be at home at Mr. Gunby's residence, Grand Central avenue. A warm welcome awaits them here, and friends all over this state and Georgia wish them all possible happiness for the future.—Atlanta Journal.

Mr. E. C. Welsh left last night for his former home at German Valley, New Jersey, where he will hereafter reside. Mr. Welsh's friends are exceedingly sorry that he has decided to leave Florida. He has made a most excellent citizen and will be greatly missed. He expected to leave for the north on Friday, but was severely kicked by his horse, and was obliged to postpone his departure.

Jim Williams, a negro, attempted to make an entrance into Mrs. Laird's home Saturday night. Fortunately the occupants of the home had not retired and gave an alarm. Policeman Dean was quickly on hand and in a little while had Williams in his keeping. He will be tried in the circuit court.

Mrs. Pierre M. Bealer and little daughter, Dorothy, after spending six weeks in Ocala with Mrs. Bealer's mother, Mrs. A. B. Brumby, her sister, Miss L. J. Brumby, and her brother, Mr. L. J. Brumby, left Monday for their home in Atlanta.

Judge and Mrs. Richard McConally had a small dinner party at the Arms house Sunday, having as their guests Mrs. Hattie Dye, Miss Esther Weather, Mr. Stephen Jewett and Mr. Steven Taylor of Asheville, N. C.

Mr. L. S. Light was in to see us on Monday. He is on the jury for the week. He says that the financial hurry has not yet touched the truckers and he hopes that things will have quieted down before next spring.

Charles White arrived over the Seaboard last night and will be in the city for a few days. Mr. White is one of the best known of Floridians. He has been all over the country, and has been successful in various enterprises.—Tampa Times.

Mrs. J. G. Lage of Woodmar, and a large number of other ladies from Lake Weir, were in Ocala Monday doing their Christmas shopping. Mrs. R. A. Alfred of Inglis, was also among the Christmas shoppers in the city Monday.

MR. ATKISSON TO LEAVE US

A large number of the Methodists of this city are all torn up because of the failure of the conference to return Mr. Atkisson to Ocala for another year. During the year that he was with us he was eminently successful from every point of view. As a pastor he was especially popular. He succeeded in bringing together and harmonizing the discordant elements of the congregation and cemented the forces of the church along all lines of upliftment. Besides being a logical and forceful preacher, Mr. Atkisson is a good mixer and is just such a preacher as the Ocala church needs at this particular time in her history. His unexpected removal can be regarded scarcely less than a denominational calamity, and the regrets of the Methodists are shared by the citizens of the community generally. But one of the strong forces of the Methodist church is the loyalty of its members, and we hope that the exercise of this virtue will be manifested now and exemplified in the reception of the new pastor. We hope that he will be given a warm and generous welcome, that all the members of the church will work together and give the new preacher the same measure of loyalty and devotion that was accorded to the retiring one, and in this way he will be in a position to fill Mr. Atkisson's place in the public estimation. It is a good sign of church zeal to see its members deploring the departure of a pastor. Were it otherwise it would show the want of zeal and fidelity, which is the life of a church and without which no congregation can thrive.

The Presbyterian Tea

The silver tea at the manse Monday afternoon was a very delightful event. This was the first time that Dr. and Mrs. Dodge had entertained their friends, and their hospitality was very charming. They were assisted by their charming daughter, Mrs. Mary Dodge Maddox, who has just returned home after an absence of several months.

Mrs. R. L. Anderson, Mrs. Jack Camp and a number of the lady members of the Presbyterian church assisted Dr. and Mrs. Dodge, and a large number called during the afternoon, bringing with them a splendid silver offering.

Light refreshments were served in the dining room and in every way this tea was exceedingly pleasant.

Misses Frances Anderson and Lilian Anderson, who attended college in New York state, the former at Vassar and the latter at Troy, will spend the Christmas holidays with relatives at Indianapolis, Indiana.

Moonlight Drive and Cane Grinding

Several of the young folks enjoyed a novel and wholly delightful trip on Monday afternoon and evening. They left Ocala at 5 o'clock in a big wagonette and drove to Sharpe's Ferry. Here they went to the home of Mrs. Hinton, the ferryman. He is now engaged in grinding cane, and this jolly party was given the entire privilege of the farm and had a jolly time chewing cane, drinking cane juice and watching the syrup boil. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dyer, who chaperoned the party, had never before attended a cane grinding, and they were quite delighted with its novelty. The others in the party were Misses Esther Weathers, Hattie Dye, Pauline Sullivan, Sara McCreery, Alice Bullock, Messrs. O. B. Howse, Stephen Jewett.

The moonlight ride home over the hard road was thoroughly enjoyed, the air being just crisp and frosty enough to put the young people in the gayest and happiest spirits. The party reached home at midnight.

There is no good reason why our contemporaries should object to the Times telling about the beautiful red-haired angels who live in this Garden of Eden. If their red-haired angels are freckled and have pug noses, the Apalachicola beauties should not be blamed for their misfortune. Everyone cannot be beautiful.—Apalachicola Times.

Christmas Greetings

The King's Daughters send Christmas greetings to the people of Ocala, and at the same time request everyone who would like to make a Christmas present to the poor to send the same on Thursday or Friday to the residence of Mrs. Blittinger, the president of the King's Daughters. Wearing apparel of any description, suitable for men, women and children, also groceries and fruits will be gratefully accepted.

The teachers of the public school will please ask their pupils to bring their usual contributions on Friday. The public is also requested to notify Mrs. Blittinger of any person in need of assistance, or any person not exactly needy, but whom Santa Claus might otherwise forget.

A meeting of the King's Daughters will be held Thursday morning at 9:30 in the Sunday school room of the Methodist church. All members requested to attend.

MRS. C. RHEINAUER, Sec.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Brighton of Toronto, Canada, regular winter visitors to our city, arrived in Ocala Monday and will remain for several months. They have many friends in Ocala who are always delighted to see them.

Mr. Thurlow Bishop has gone to Miami, and will bring back with him several prisoners.

New Goods Galore

Having just returned from New York and other Eastern Markets with a most complete line of Goods, I am now prepared to show to the people of this section of Florida such a variety of goods as they have never before seen here. In this stock will be found the greatest collection of LADIES' SUITS AND SKIRTS in the city. They are hand tailored and made of the best fabrics, and in the latest fashions, and considering price and quality they are being sold as low as it is possible to handle this class of goods. An immense line of also abounds here, and to attempt to describe them here would take a full page of this paper's space. They must be seen to be appreciated. Then, too, they are being sold at especially attractive prices. Also Boys' Knee Pants Suits, sizes 4 to 18. The stock of LADIES' AND MEN'S SHOES now being shown here cannot be duplicated in Central Florida. All kinds, from the highest grade patent leather to the best heavy leather for hard-wearing purposes. Full line of Dress Goods in all kinds of Silks, etc. Underwear for the whole family may be found here, and in fact everything usually kept in a first-class Dry Goods Store. Give me a call and I will save you money.

As the store is crowded from top to bottom we are compelled to reduce the stock in order to properly display goods, hence the lowest prices prevail on the entire stock.
